

Coen van Genderen

Coen van Genderen is Manager Agribusiness Food and Forestry for Africa at FMO, the Dutch development bank, where he has been working since 2017. He holds a Master's degree in Finance from the Rotterdam School of Management, Erasmus University, and a Bachelor's degree in International Business Administration from the same institution. Prior to joining FMO Coen worked with Rabobank.