

Francisco Gaztelu Mezquiriz is the Director of the North Africa Directorate in the Directorate-General for the Middle East, North Africa, and the Gulf (DG MENA).

Previously, he served as Director of the Southern Neighbourhood and Türkiye Directorate, following his role as Head of the Migration Unit, both within the former Directorate-General for Neighbourhood and Enlargement Negotiations (DG NEAR).

His extensive experience also includes positions as Head of the Irregular Migration and Return Policy Unit at the Directorate-General for Migration and Home Affairs (DG HOME), Head of Unit for the Multi-Annual Financial Framework, Budget, and Agencies, as well as Assistant to the Director-General for Asia Pacific. He has also served as Deputy Head of Unit for the Middle East and Deputy Head of Cabinet to the Vice-President for the Internal Market, Defence, and Space.

Mr Gaztelu Mezquiriz has a background in engineering and microeconomics.