

Short bio

Félix Fernández-Shaw

Félix Fernández-Shaw is Director at the European Commission since 2018 and is responsible for Decarbonisation, Mobility and Raw Materials in DG Grow.

Previously, he was Director in DG INTPA for Latin America and the Caribbean, including the Global Gateway. He has worked on sustainable development and external financing issues since 2009, as Council WG Chair, in the European External Action Service as Head of Division and as Expert in the Cabinet of the HRVP Federica Mogherini.

Prior to that, he has a 10-year long experience in Justice and Home Affairs Issues as a Spanish career diplomat. He served in the Spanish Permanent Representation to the EU and in the Spanish Administration in Madrid dealing with migration issues and with judicial and antiterrorist cooperation as Director-General in the Ministry of Justice and in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.